

I am writing to urge you to allow XM radio to continue to provide instant traffic and weather for major metropolitan areas. This a valuable service to me and allows me to access the information instantly. Please support the movement to new technologies and not move backwards with your approach.